

Desert Cactus

I am a cactus. A little sad cactus.
I am a cactus. A little sad cactus.
No one walks the ground here anymore.
And I still stand here all alone.

The mice come and then they go.
The mice come and then they go,
The rain is never here I am thirsty.
And I still stand here all alone.

But I am fine here all alone.
But I am fine here all alone.
It is so very peaceful at night.
And I still stand here all alone.
