

Sly Snake

I see a snake in my side eye.

I wonder why the snake is so sly slithering past me and burrowing in the golden, glowing warm sand

Looking for prey and praying he finds a sweet tasting tiny mouse to gobble and munch for breakfast.

His prey appears.

He gobbled it in record time!

The slithering sly snake finally got its prey - who prayed not to get eaten.