

Invasive Species

An organism that causes ecological or economic harm in a new environment where it is not native.

Native Species

An organism that naturally occurs in an area. It is adapted to the conditions of that environment and has relationships with other organisms in that environment that keep it in balance.

Stakeholder

A person with an interest or concern in something like a business or government project.

Herbicide

A substance that is toxic to plants and used to remove unwanted vegetation.

